PROFESSIONAL SERVICES AND CONSULTANCY COLLABORATION

Essa Al Sulaiti Law Firm and WMMC Consultancy have joined forces in the field of Professional Services and Consultancy since September 1st.

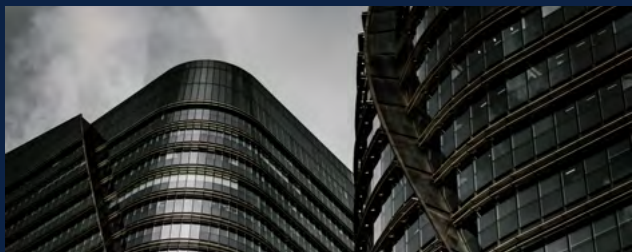

Both firms share passion and experience in advising and guiding new and existing companies in starting and further optimizing their businesses.

For existing companies, we analyse, advise, and implement changes upon request of the customer where necessary.

'Whether it concerns relatively small adjustments to operational processes or changes at a strategic level, we support our clients throughout the whole change or transformation process with the aim of improving the overall performance of the company' says Mr. Essa Al Sulaiti, Founder and Chairman of Essa Al Sulaiti Law Firm, a full-service law firm headquartered in Qatar.

Qatar's business ecosystem is in full transformation and offers many opportunities to existing businesses, but also to new entrepreneurs coming from abroad.

WMMC CONSULTANCY

At this very moment, we advise entrepreneurs coming from Europe as well as Asia. We support them with feasibility studies and developing Business Plans within the local Legal and Tax frameworks, to create a strong foundation prior to establishing offices and successfully driving their businesses in Qatar.

'We speak the language of our clients; we understand the needs of the organization and we push actions towards completed goals. We do not work for our clients, but with our clients' is the philosophy of both entrepreneurs, and this is why we are successful in what we deliver' says Robert W. Cats, founder and owner of WMMC Consultancy with its headquarter in The Netherlands.

It is an interesting and exciting period. During the last year, we have seen many businesses struggle due to the COVID-pandemic, and new businesses postponed their plans to explore emerging opportunities. However, we now see an increasing demand for our services and therefore we foresee a very positive future for both the Qatari business environment and the local economy.

With the partnership between the two firms, new and existing businesses can benefit from years of international and local experience in a variety of industries and sectors, as well as a wealth of knowledge and an impressive extensive professional network.

ESSA AL SULAITI LAW FIRM

Essa Al Sulaiti Law Firm is a full-service law firm headquartered in Qatar offering legal services.

Our firm provides both controversial and non-contentious legal services across a variety of industries and sectors, with a specific focus on litigation and arbitration.

Our services distinguish us from others due to our in-depth legal expertise and experience, both locally and internationally.

In addition, our multicultural representation, both in presence and in language, creates a trusted environment for our clients to request our legal support. In addition to the Arabic and English language, we also represent our clients in French, Spanish, Greek, Italian, Portuguese and Urdu where necessary.

'For every question, there is an answer, for every problem, there is a solution.'
